Hell is a place where there is no hope of anything better. There is no salvation possible anymore, there is nothing to look forward to. While we still live, God's free gift of salvation is still offered us in Jesus Christ (John 3:16-18). But once we die, that gift is no longer available, and hope disappears (Matthew 25:1-13). The Christian's hope, on the other hand, is eternal.

What does the Bible say about the Christian's hope?

What is so important about Christian hope? If our future is not secured and satisfied by God then we are going to be excessively anxious. This results either in paralyzing fear or in self-managed, greedy control. We end up thinking about ourselves, our future, our problems and our potential, and that keeps us from loving.
